VOTO 2013 - EL PUEBLO DECIDE

Ministro Villegas hace llamado al voto para preservar la independencia conquistada

Caracas, 14 Abr. AVN.- Este domingo el ministro para la Comunicación e Información, Ernesto Villegas, hizo un llamado a los electores a ejercer su derecho al sufragio para preservar el camino de la independencia conquistada en los últimos 14 años, pues Venezuela como ningún otro país del mundo ha ejercitado el músculo de la democracia participativa y protagónica.

"Es una fiesta particular. En los últimos 14 años hemos hecho más elecciones que en los 50 años anteriores y somos la envidia de muchos países que se califican de democráticos", comentó Villegas durante una transmisión especial de Venezolana de Televisión (VTV).
